

Position Title: Senior SharePoint Developer

Job Description NARTech, Inc. is currently seeking a Senior SharePoint Developer to join our growing company. Named as a Washington Technology “Fast 50 Government Contractor”, we are a small business, appraised at CMMI Level 4.

We currently have an open position for a Senior SharePoint Developer. We are looking for dynamic, talented software engineers who are ready for a challenge where teamwork, technical ability, client interaction, and problem-solving skills are essential.

Responsibilities

- Interfacing with the user(s) and sponsor(s) and all other stakeholders in order to determine their (evolving) needs
- Understanding and analyzing requirements.
- Generating and executing test scripts
- Creating and maintaining SharePoint Lists, Libraries, custom workflows, and custom web parts.

Skills

We require the following skills:

- Excellent analysis, design and development skills
- Programming expertise, with javascript and C#/.Net preferred
- Strong problem-solving and analytical skills
- A commitment to quality
- The ability to work well in a team, as well as independently
- The ability to work remotely in an efficient and effective manner
- The ability to communicate effectively - both verbal and written communication, among team members and with the client
- Knowledge of SharePoint Designer and Microsoft Visual Studio
- Meeting any of the following additional criteria would be a plus:
 - Experience Web Services and using them with SharePoint
 - Microsoft InfoPath development
 - SharePoint 2010 experience require, SharePoint 2013 experience strongly desired
 - Experience with a law firm or in the legal field

Experience We seek a Senior SharePoint developer with 5+ years of SharePoint development experience.

Requirements

- B. S. degree in Computer Science or similar degree is preferred